

Great South League College Summer Baseball Sponsorship

The NCF Baseball is a College Summer Baseball organization, which attracts All-Star college baseball players from across North America, including many locally grown talents. NCF has three teams (Gainesville, St. Augustine, and Jacksonville) that are members of the GREAT SOUTH LEAGUE (www.greatsouthleague.com), which is a wood-bat college summer baseball league, which uses professional equipment (bats and balls) and plays a minor-league type schedule of 35 games. The GREAT SOUTH LEAGUE has 23 teams in 6 states. The GREAT SOUTH LEAGUE is sponsored and coordinated by the Georgia Dugout Club, a 501c3 organization that promotes baseball in the state of Georgia (www.georgiadugoutclub.com).

Collegiate players are seeking sponsorship to be able to continue to play baseball during the summer. The player fee for NCF Baseball is $650 and players will also have travel and meal expenses during the season. If you are able to sponsor a player please fill out the below information and return your sponsorship check, please make sure to indicate which player you are sponsoring.
